

The EPIC Model

(Expectations, Preventions, Interventions, and Continuations)

The EPIC Model is an overarching framework of restorative disciplinary practices that seeks to enable students to make amends for their transgressions by reestablishing key relationships and engaging in corrective actions aligned to behavior concerns that redress wrongdoing.

The Model utilizes positive behavior approaches through a humanistic interaction of adults and children, encompassing the entire child to elicit expected behaviors through engaging and positive relationships.

